From the President

Dear Friends and Supporters,

As we approach the upcoming national elections, NorCal Public Media provides both the local and national news coverage you need to help you learn about the ballot issues and candidate platforms. Elections have consequences and an impact on all of our lives.

A good place to start is the Sonoma County News election website which can be found at norcalpublicmedia.org/elections-2024

Darren LaShelle

with easy to navigate pages and links. There are sections that highlight North Bay local stories, California state election news, and national stories provided by our partners at NPR and PBS. The site also provides a Voter Frequently Asked Questions module, and a quick and easy form for voter registration.

Coming up this election season, NorCal will present the Presidential Candidate Debate with coverage from both PBS and NPR on September 10. KRCB 104.9 will present an issue forum on the factory farm/family farm Measure J, hosted by KRCB's Clark Wolf at the Sonoma County Library in downtown Santa Rosa on September 18. That in-person event will be recorded and aired in the following weeks on the radio. Also look for a discussion with NPR Weekend Edition Sunday host Ayesha Rascoe airing on KRCB 104.9 this election season. This discussion was recorded here in Sonoma County in partnership with the Press Democrat as part of the Trust & Democracy series of community events. FRONTLINE on PBS will present The Choice 2024 (see page 5) airing on October 3, which explores the history and influences of the presidential candidates.

Whatever you choose to watch and/or listen to, make sure you are registered to vote for this upcoming election.
